ALI TOPALOGLU

202-492-5966 · ali_t@gwmail.gwu.edu · https://github.com/AliTopal89
http://www.linkedin.com/in/alitopaloglu · http://alitopal89.github.io/

ABOUT ME

Full stack web developer with a background in economics and statistics who enjoys solving problems and working with team players to develop fun meaningful and useful apps; a personable extrovert who strives for excellence without taking himself too seriously.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Programming: Ruby on Rails, Python, JavaScript, jQuery, React, HTML5/CSS3, Slim, Bootstrap, RSpec, PostgreSQL, MySQL, SAML, Ubuntu, AWS, Docker, Pivotal Cloud Foundry, Jenkins, Splunk, New Relic
Languages: English, Turkish (Native or Bilingual Proficiency)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Sevatec, Washington DC, March 2016 – Present
Ruby on Rails Developer at USCIS/ DevOps Engineer at USCIS
- Enhanced Jenkins scripts for more efficient deployments
- Configured Dockerfiles for development and deployments
- Tested development environments with logs in AWS, PCF and Splunk
- Debugged pull requests and commits with pry and pry-debugger
- Updated an internal gem and service brokers for development purposes
- Configured applications to go through the proxy setting

Disclaimer Fit, Washington DC, August 2015 – January 2016
Freelancing Full Stack Web Developer
- Modified socialpic Jquery plugin to share the ads on social media
- Created a Ruby on Rails authentication for users to post ads and interact with the ads on the dashboard
- Developed and launched the Disclaimer Fit site on Heroku

Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP, Washington DC, December 2012 – March 2015
International Arbitration & International Trade Paralegal
- Performed quantitative research for the preparation of exhibits in mining and construction cases
- Analyzed surrogate values of products for countervailing duty and anti-dumping investigations

No Labels, Washington DC, January 2012 – May 2012
Advertising Intern
- Developed and implemented No Labels client database

National Association of Foreign Trade Zones (NAFTZ), Washington DC, June 2011 – September 2011
Special Events Coordinator Intern
- Summarized articles about FTZ's, from the weekly FTZ news magazine
- Organized budget, sponsorship, and special conference informational handouts

EDUCATION

George Washington University
   BS, Economics & Statistics, May 2012

General Assembly
Web Development Immersive, June 2015